Nikotenko Tatiana | QA Engineer

E-mail: tnikotenko@gmail.com | Kyrgyzstan, Bishkek| Linkedin | Github | Telegram

SUMMARY

QA Engineer with experience in functional testing and over 3 years of experience in UI/UX design. Specializing in website and web service testing. Skilled in creating test cases, defect localization, and requirement analysis. Completed EPAM courses in testing and automation, currently studying Python and automated testing. Effectively work remotely, capable of managing time and working in a team.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Methodologies: Agile (Scrum)
Test Management: TestRail, Jira, Confluence
Tools: DevTools, Postman, Swagger, Charles Proxy, Visual Studio Code
Languages: HTML, CSS
Networking: REST API
Databases: MySQL
Version Control: Git, GitLab
OS and Platforms: Windows, Mac, Android, iOS
UI/UX: Material Design, Figma, Photoshop, Illustrator
Languages: English (B1), Russian (native)
Certifications: Functional Software Testing, Automated Testing Introduction – EPAM

EDUCATION

Russian State Social University, June 2016
Specialization: Law

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

QA Engineer | Epam Systems | Professional Training   April 2024 – Present

- Conducted functional, regression, and smoke testing of websites and web services.
- Tested mobile applications (Android/iOS), identifying and documenting critical bugs.
- Developed test cases and checklists.
- Localized defects and created error reports.
- Analyzed requirements and test documentation.
- Performed cross-platform and cross-browser testing to ensure compatibility across various devices and platforms.
- Worked with JSON, XML, REST API, and used Postman and Charles Proxy.
- Wrote SQL queries for data validation and managed versions using Git.

UI/UX Designer | Freelance   January 2021 – Present

- Designed websites and interfaces, including responsive designs using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.
- Interacted with clients from requirements discussion to final product presentation.
- Developed user experience strategies based on data and analytics.
- Worked on interface redesigns to improve conversion rates and usability.
- Conducted target audience research and competitive market analysis.
- Tested interfaces for usability and localized defects using Trello.
- Collaborated with developers to discuss issues and potential functionality improvements.